

Off-the-shelf Algorithms

For the vision aspect of this project, the aim was to use primarily off-the-shelf algorithms to solve our problem.

- To This end, OpenCV was used to perform the heavy lifting in regard to image detection and matching,
- and the Ceres Solver was used to run large scale non-linear optimizations based on our problem formulations.

